WELCOME TO HONEY'S TAMPA

FAMILY OWNED & OPERATED SINCE 1962

The History of Honey's

The history of Honey's began in Western NY in "1962" when the Pacifico family opened a restaurant in a converted garage that was appropriately called "Pacifico's Garage" and was operated by Lorenzo "Poppy" Pacifico.

Its original remodeling consisted of the splicing of 2x4 lumber together for the walls and was held together with straightened nails that were previously bent.

But the restaurant needed a name, so Lawrence Pacifico Jr. said to his mother, "Ma, you call everyone Honey so why don't we call it HONEY'S, thus giving you the name HONEY'S.

Theresa "Honey" Pacifico always knew everyone's name, you were simply and affectionately known as Honey to her.
